

S EMINAR AND WORKSHOP REGISTRATION

SAA members in good standing—i.e., those who have paid their membership dues for 2001—are eligible to register for workshops and seminars. Dues are assessed by the calendar, not the academic year. Those with mailing labels bearing a "01" in the upper-right hand corner have already paid membership dues for the year and are eligible to register. For those whose mailing label does not bear a "01," dues are now payable; see page 10 for the Membership Dues Form, with dues assessed according to yearly income.

SAA seminars and workshops are designed to serve as forums for fresh research, mutual criticism, and pedagogical experimentation among members with specialized interests and areas of expertise. The seminar or workshop leaders are empowered by the Trustees of the Association to determine the nature and extent of the work to be completed in preparation for these sessions. Papers, common readings, compilations of bibliographies, and other exercises or exchanges may be assigned by the leader(s). All written materials are to be duplicated, circulated, and read in advance of the meeting. It is assumed that all participants in a workshop or seminar will be familiar with one another's work by the time the meeting begins, so that the session can be devoted to fruitful discussion, provocative interchange, and shared discovery.

Inevitably, some programs are more popular than others. While every effort is made to honor individual preferences in registration, each member is requested to add a second, third, and fourth choice to his or her preferred selection. Enrollments are determined on a first-received, first-registered basis, and even those who meet the 15 September deadline cannot always be assured of securing their first choices. The SAA operates cooperatively and relies on the good will of its members in seminar and workshop registrations. Any registrant submitting a form without a range of choices may have to be assigned to a seminar at random.

It is assumed that seminars and workshops are appropriate for college and university faculty, independent scholars, and graduate students in the later stages of their doctoral work. Newcomers to the SAA and students in the earlier stages of graduate work may wish to familiarize themselves with the Association's proceedings by attending a meeting's paper sessions and auditing seminars and such workshops as are open to the membership (some workshops are closed at the request of their leaders). No member may enroll in more than one of these programs, and those who are presenting papers at the meeting may not also hold places in the seminars or workshops.

To facilitate the registration process, hard copy detached from this bulletin must be completed and mailed to the SAA offices. Faxed and e-mailed registrations cannot be accepted.
