

Mellon/ACLS Public Fellows Program – 2019 Fellowship Competition

The American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) is pleased to announce the ninth annual competition of the Mellon/ACLS Public Fellows Program. This initiative places humanities PhDs in substantive roles in diverse nonprofit and government organizations, demonstrating that the capacities developed in the course of earning a doctoral degree in the humanities have wide application beyond the academy. The two-year fellowships carry an annual stipend of $68,000, health insurance, a relocation allowance, and up to $3,000 in professional development funds for the fellow.

In 2019, ACLS will place up to 21 PhDs as Public Fellows in the following organizations and roles:

- Alliance Theatre (Atlanta, GA) – Community Engagement & Audience Development Manager
- American Public Media (St. Paul, MN) – Senior Research Analyst
- Center for Court Innovation (New York, NY) – Communications Project Manager
- Chicago Humanities Festival (Chicago, IL) – Program Manager
- Citizens' Committee for the Children of New York (New York, NY) – Policy & Budget Analyst
- Committee to Protect Journalists (New York, NY) – Research Manager
- Community Change (Washington, DC) – Policy Advisor
- Data & Society Research Institute (New York, NY) – Editor
- The German Marshall Fund of the United States (Washington, DC) – Program Officer
- Harriet Beecher Stowe Center (Hartford, CT) – Grants Manager
- Library of America (New York, NY) – Outreach Programs Manager
- National Conference of State Legislatures (Denver, CO) – Legislative Policy Specialist
- National Low Income Housing Coalition (Washington, DC) – Research Analyst
- Natural Resources Defense Council (Washington, DC) – Campaign Advocate, Latin America Project
- PEN America (New York, NY) – Festival Programs Manager
- Public Books (New York, NY) – Associate Editor
- Rare (Arlington, VA) – Community Engagement Manager
- Reinvestment Fund (Philadelphia, PA) – Policy Analyst
